Re: Paul Grimmatt v. New York City Department of Correctional Services, et al., Case No. 15-cv-07351 (JPO) (SN) - Joint Letter on Status of Discovery

Dear Magistrate Judge Netburn:

As the Court is aware, on September 20, 2017, the Court entered an Order [D.E. 104] instructing additional Defendants Sharma and Corizon Correctional Medical Associates of New York to answer the complaint by September 29, 2017. The additional answers have now been filed. Per the Court's August 1, 2017 Case Management Order, counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants respectfully submit this joint letter to inform the Court that parties are moving forward with discovery with the Court's clarification on the scope of litigation in mind.

We currently expect fact discovery to be completed in the timeframe originally set by the Court. There are no outstanding discovery disputes at this time. Moreover, counsel have conferred, and do not believe that a settlement conference is warranted at this time.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joseph W. Slaughter
